

When Jesus was finished telling the story He asked, “So which of these three men do you think treated the traveling man like a neighbor?”

“Well,” replied the man, “the one who showed kindness. The one who took care of him.”

Jesus smiled and said. “Then go and do the same.”