

#STEALINGTIME (CONTINUED)

11. Cory called his surrender to all things online as a “gradual taking.” What does he mean? Can you recognize a gradual taking in your own life?
12. “When I don’t take time to think and reflect, I take away every opportunity for God to guide my life.”

How much time do you allow in your day to think and reflect? (Doing homework doesn’t count! This means stopping and allowing those little moments.)
13. How would your relationship with God grow/change if you dedicated even 5 minutes you usually spend surfing the internet to prayer, reading Scripture, meditating on something about the Lord that is interesting, moving or even confusing to you?
14. What will it take for you to turn off or separate yourself from your devices so that you can “take back” the time that those practices have stolen?
